What is Feudalism?

Graphic Organizer: "Main Idea Pyramid"

Directions: Complete your feudalistic pyramid below from the example that Mr. Whitman shared with you in class.

Feudalism – A political/class system that originated post-Roman Empire to help protect people from invading barbarians and/or Scandinavians (Vikings). A system of government in which kings & queens had the most power followed by nobles, vassals, knights, peasants, and serfs. Serfs were owned by the fief (land).

Kings
Queens

Nobles Lords & Ladies

Vassals – manor manager
&
Knights

NOTE: A Knight could also be a lord and was often of noble blood

Peasants – farmers/servants
&
Serfs – owned by the land

Most Powerful/Smallest Group

Define this term:

Manor – a large estate, often including a village and farmlands, ruled by a lord or lady in medieval Europe; often found surrounding a castle

Least Powerful
Biggest Group

Define the term Feudal System – A system of government in which less powerful people promise loyalty to more powerful ones in return for protection from barbarians/Vikings for instance.
